

SORTED! Organising & Decluttering 14\04\2009

After almost a decade in business, I'm grateful I've rarely had to chase money from debtors. But recently, when a large sum was outstanding, Google led me to SA Debt Recovery.

The service was terrific and I was kept well-informed every step of the way. The best part is we had a happy ending - the money owed finally appeared. Many thanks to SA Debt Recovery for making an unpleasant task painless!
